

Pick An Image - Profiling

Today we are going to play detectives. To be a good detective you need to get into the mind of other people. We'll start by getting into our own mind.

In the middle of the floor there are several images.

1. Look through them and find ONE image that best represents yourself.
2. When you find it go back to your seat in the circle.
3. You have one minute to find it, starting NOW!

Start the counter.

1. Did everyone pick an image?
2. Let's use it to introduce ourselves, we'll start with our name and the reason why we picked that image.
What is about the image that is similar to us.

I start.

1. My name is Daniela. I chose the image of a Koala because this animal is peaceful like me.
2. Now, one by one introduce yourself, following the circle...
